

Something Will Happen at This Store Next Monday Evening.

Our Saturday Sale!

LADIES' KID GLOVES, 79c PER PAIR.

Saturday is the Glove opportunity of the year. Every woman with a predominating sense of economy will buy one, two and perhaps three pairs, for these Glove-wearing days will sanction it — as well as the purse. The best Fall shades are represented among these Gloves.

Don't confound these Gloves with the ordinary 79c kind. They are not. "Louis Myers & Son" made these Gloves up to retail for $1.00 per pair. They are perfect goods. The reason for this low price is the skins do not run quite so even as the regular $1.00 Gloves.

We shall probably sell them as long as they last about as fast as we can hand them out. We hope you won't wait until they are all gone.

REMEMBER THAT OUR LINEN SALE IS ON NOW.
THE VALUES CANNOT BE DUPLICATED ONCE THEY ARE SOLD.

BRATTLEBORO OBJECTS.

And Will Appeal in Decision Over a $50,000 Legacy.

Brattleboro, Nov. 17.—Judge E. L. Waterman of the probate court yesterday gave a decision in the question as to whom the bequest of $50,000 left by Col. William Austin for a hospital in Brattleboro, should be paid. The trustees of the hospital named in the will claimed that as the will gave the money to the town in trust, it should be paid to the town and controlled by trustees named by the town.

The question was raised by James F. Hooker, first selectman, who seeks to defeat the avowed purpose of the hospital trustees to establish a tuberculosis hospital. The court directs the executor to pay the money to the town, to be paid over to the hospital trustees when they require it. The town will appeal.

This ware is usually pretty high and an opportunity for saving in price, we think, will be appreciated. In Baking Powder Premiums are some very useful articles, such as

RICE BOILERS, DISH PANS, KETTLES.

In most instances these articles would cost at a regular dealer's more than our price for Powder and Premium. Buy today and save money by so doing.
